

TASTING NOTE N°21

Les Promesses 2017 / Famille Gonnet
Côtes du Rhône AOC / 14%abv.
70% Grenache Noir + 30% Syrah

Medium ruby colour

Generic aromas with medium intensity

Ripe red fruit (strawberry, raspberry), ripe black fruit (blackberry, black plum), flowers (violet, peony), spice (black pepper, liquorice) and herbs (menthol, dried herbs)

Dry, medium acidity, medium ripe tannins, high alcohol, medium body, medium finish

Flavours of medium intensity with strawberry, blackberry, black plum, peony, black pepper, liquorice and menthol

Good wine: balanced, easy-drinking & spicy

To serve at 16-18°C

To drink now

With melon & cured ham, tapas, chili con carne, osso bucco, moussaka, couscous, barbecued beef fillet & stuffed zucchinis, cod with tomato sauce & boulghour, Neufchâtel, strawberry soup,...

Fun fact: The Côtes du Rhône AOC is France's second largest wine appellation after Bordeaux in terms of production. Most of the vines used in the wines come from the southern portion of the Rhone Valley, as the northern part is dedicated to better valued AOCs.

@WinebyAlex